Our Authoress-Her New Book - The Large Goodsell Family-Bird Libraries-The Truckmen's Ball - Tale of a Coat - What Came of a New Year's Call.

Not every town can boast a live authoress of established reputation. The March number of a well-known magazine contains a portrait of Mrs. Magazine contains a portrait of Mrs.
Mabel Osgood Wright who has a beautiful country seat in this place. She is represented as standing by the side of a sundial the pedestal of which covered with a creeping vine. It is now about three years since the secret of the Mentity of "Barbara, the Commuter's Wife," was revealed, and Mrs. Wright received the credit that was her due for a series of successful wright received the credit that was her due for a series of successful books, including the "Garden of a Commuter's Wife," and "People of the Whiripool." She prefers to keep up her anonymity, and her new book wh'ch will soon appear will be called, "Poppea of the Post Office." It is said this is an urban work. It will tell the story of a girl who grew up in New York. of a girl who grew up in New York, in the years following the Civil War. The scene alternates between New York and Fairfield, and the types of character will belong to the last generation.

It is said that Greenfield Hill in the 18th century was occupied by farmers who owned slaves, and that at least nine of them belonged to the church which still stands on the hill. A number of the descendants of the first paster of this church, Rev. Mr. Goodsell, still lives in town. He graduated from Yale in 1724 and began to preach at the age of 20. That he was a sell, still lives in town. He graduated from Yale in 1724 and began to preach at the age of 20. That he was a strenuous man and after the heart of our Procident Roosevelt is evidenced by the fact that he had a family of 8 daughters and 7 sons. For 30 years he preached in this church, the longest of all the pastorates. Mr. Stoddard Goodall have done so, as they are innocount in the pastorates of six libraries of 10 volumes each. Mr. Charles D. Hine of Hartford has charge of these libraries, and if any Fairfield teacher will write to him books may be had for the asking to read and then send back. Among the libraries a few have the following names: Garden Craft, Ernest Seaton Thompson, Frank M. Chapman, Olive Thorne, Fairfield, John Burroughs and Hamilton Gibson.

Mr. Joseph Webber, of Brooklyn, who owns a lot on the beach, is having the land between his cottage and the new beach road filled in. Mr. William Dalling has the job, and will have to move 700 square yards of gravel, to make the lott even with the road.

Bunten, Mr. Johnstone, Mr. Gregory, Mr. James Bayne, Miss Bayne, Miss Keefe, Miss Swagger, L. Erb, Miss A. Bomey, Mr. J. Jordan, Mr. John Banks, L. Wakeman, and others. Bridgeport, Westport and Southport were well represented. The music was by Sansone's orchestra, and Prof. Anthony acted as prompter.

A case called yesterday before Mr. Justice Wakeman was that of the State ws. John Hallett. The indictment charged theft, and Attorney Ciltus King appeared for the prosecution and detection and detection and detection of the description of the description and detection of the description of the description and detection of the description of the description charged theft, and Attorney Clitus King appeared for the prosecution and Attorney James Cummings for the de-fense, Mr. Hallett is employed in the Fairfield Rubber Works. As near as Fairfield Rubber Works. As near as could be made out from the testimony of the witnesses the fact appeared to be as follows: As long ago as last New Year's Day one Vitor Verrelle, who lives on Brewster street at Black Rock, took a notion that he would go and see one George W. Turney who lives on Main street near Benson road. He came down to the center of the town to get some refreshments, which it is said he had no difficulty in procuring. He also found some boon companions, among them Frank Gillick and John and George Hallett. They all went to among them Frank Gillick and John and George Hallett. They all went to the domicile of Mr. George Washington Turney, to make a New Year's call. As the day was warm, Mr. Vitor Verrelle took off his coat, his under coat and his Cardigan jacket, and left them on a chair in a room with the company. He went into another room with Mrs. Mary E. Allen, and presentive decided that he wanted to go to Bridgeport, or eise to his home on Brewster street. It is said he took his overcoat, and jumped out of a window, Martin and Daniel Keating of Dan-Brewster street. It is said he took his overcoat, and jumped out of a window, he was in such a hurry to catch a passing automobile, and also a trolley car. But he missed both of these fast going arrangements and finally threw himself into a butcher's cart, the driver of which he claimed to know. He left his undercoat and his Cardigan Haight of the Park City spent Saturday in town.

ANOTHER RECORD.

(Special from United States.)

Queenstown, March 2.—The giant Mauretania added another to her long list of blue ribbons of the sea to-day by completing the "Land to Land" eastward run across the Atlantic in four days, twenty hours and seven minutes, an average speed of 25.28 knots an hour.

The Mauretania passed Daunt's Rock at 9.37 this morning. On her last trip to New York she broke the record for the northerly course, the average speed record and the record for the northerly course, the average speed record and the record for the northerly course, the average speed record and the record for the northerly course, the average speed record and the record for the northerly course, the average speed record and the record for the fastest day's run.

Captain Pritchard is receiving control of the big ship and it is probable that a substantial recognition will be made of his services.

Over half of the business of the world is done on borrowed capital. Loans further all great enterprises. Loans establish the credit of nations. But it isn't the good fortune of everybody to have what is known in financial circles as "gilt edged security." It is this great majority we wish to reach and assist when assistance is most needed. We Loan any amount from $5.00 up on Household Goods. The goods remain in your possession. We deal honestly and fairly with all.
